Vegas Extravagances

If money were no object, where would you go: what would you buy, where would you dine, where would you stay? That's our focus in this installment of the Indulgence Issue: fashions, jewelry and accessories that are on our hot list, the best places to dine and those that feature the most exquisite (and expensive) cocktails and high-roller suites you'll want to hole up in during your trip. Also, it's the month of romance, so we've included the most stunning red items that can be found in town—it is the color of passion, and your sweetie will turn amorous in a hurry after receiving one of these exquisite gifts. Also, we sit down with chef Michael Mina, who operates four Las Vegas restaurants, the newest of which is BARDOT Brasserie, a French jewel at the Aria that's nothing short of stunning. Now, go forth and indulge!

TRIP PLANNER

>> FRIDAY

South Strip. When it comes to surf & turf, not to mention caviar & vodka, a trip to Red Square (above), at Mandalay Bay, is just what the love doctor ordered. Connected to the hotel-casino, the Four Seasons beckons with its easy luxury; steak lovers won't want to miss a trip to Charlie Palmer Steak. End the evening back at Mandalay Bay with a nightcap and expansive Las Vegas views at Foundation Room.

>> SATURDAY

Mid Strip. The height of high-end cuisine, it doesn't get more decadent than a visit to MGM Grand's Joel Robuchon (above). You can't beat a night at Eiffel Tower Restaurant at Paris for romance; a soufflé for two is must. Across the street, share a special moment with your sweetie at Cosmopolitan's Scarpetta; ask for the table that overlooks the Bella-gio Fountains for the ultimate in romantic views.

>> SUNDAY

North Strip. Everyone who visits SLS Las Vegas' Bazaar Meat (above) comes away raving about the cuisine, including the most respected chefs in town. Also brought to the resort by José Andrés, Katsuya is a flawless Japanese and sushi restaurant. Down the street at Stratosphere, imaginative creations delight at Top of the World. Stop in before dinner and enjoy happy hour in the lounge.

FASHION

The Luxe Look

It's still cold outside, but that's fine with us—we'll warm you up with fabulous furs, beauty products and accessories that just exude money, exquisite drinks for those who wish to be seen and the most posh hotel suites in town. Follow us on a journey through the best of the best Las Vegas has to offer.

Glamorous Gets

Brand new year, brand new you! Update your look with amazing beauty products that will make you feel like a million bucks, notice-me furs and shoes in which you'll positively gleam—everything you need to look like you're a part of the monied set.

DIOR
Go for the gold with this coveted beauty brand, whose winter nail polish collection includes a stunning Diorific Golden Shock Top Coat. It adorns nails in delicate golden leaves—wear it on bare nails or as a contrast over other Diorific shades. You'll get a modern and marvelous update all at once. Stores at the Bellagio, the Shops at Crystals and Wynn Las Vegas.

GUCCI AT NEIMAN MARCUS
Neiman Marcus has always been one of our go-to retailers when looking for fabulous shoes and accessories, and now, with the opening of the Gucci Cosmetics Shop, it's become a necessity every time we head to Fashion Show. The Las Vegas Neiman's is the only department store to carry Gucci's full cosmetics line outside of Saks' New York store, and we can't get enough of the luminous products that give an instant boost to our mood. Try the Magnetic Color Eye Shadow in Iconic Gold and the Silk Priming Serum, seen above, for a glow like no other. (702) 731-3636

SAKS FIFTH AVENUE
Whether it's shoes, handbags, dresses or furs we're looking for, Saks is another of those must-visit stops. This month, we adore Charlotte Olympia's gold metallic pump (at left)—slip it on for an instant pop of glam. Or, deck yourself in head-to-toe Burberry London; the look on the opposite page combines a a dreamy goat-fur jacket, moto leggings and peep-toe ankle boots. You couldn't look more chic! Fashion Show, (702) 733-8300

SALVATORE FERRAGAMO
One of our favorite runway looks of the season comes from this designer, who pairs rich, metallic fabrics with stand-out, deep-brown fur pieces for that will literally make you a walking fashion plate. Inside the Forum Shops at Caesars, (702) 933-9333 and the Grand Canal Shoppes at The Palazzo, (702) 369-0251

COCKTAILS

Chic Cocktail

The Petrossian's refined take on the martini, the Caviar Cube, pairs ultra-premium Russian vodka with vermouth and a skewer of caviar for the most decadent drink in town. You'll catch many stares as people wonder who you are.

Casa Noble Tequila Flight at Mandalay Bay

Haute Tequila

A brand co-owned by music superstar Carlos Santana, Casa Noble is one of only three organic tequilas in the world and is the pinnacle of handcrafted tequila. Pearl members of MGM Resorts' loyalty rewards program, M Life, qualify for access to a flight tasting at Mandalay Bay that features three of Casa Noble's award-winning tequilas. The $1,000 flight includes a .75 ounce tasting of each Casa Noble offering. (702) 632-7111

At Aria, Javier's high-end tequilas are for the true aficionado. The DeLeon "Leona" Tequila Reserva ($125 a shot) is the only tequila in the world to present a cask-strength 102-proof tequila. Only 100 bottles of the Clase Azul Ultra Anejo tequila ($250 a shot) were ever made; the double distilled brand was aged in sherry oak casks. The Jose Cuervo 250 Aniversario ($300 a shot) is blended from the most select tequilas in the family's reserve. (877) 230-2742

THREE CHEERS FOR ABSINTHE!

One of the largest and most exclusive selections of absinthe in Las Vegas can be found at Aria's Sage restaurant, where presentation is everything: the special "dim sum"-style absinthe cart delivers dazzling presentations of the liquor tableside. Rare varieties are sourced from the world over, including but not limited to Marilyn Manson's own "Mansinthe" and Obsello absinthe. The spirit can be poured straight for guests, or mixed into cocktails. The menu also offers decadent seasonal cocktails, such as the indulgent absinthe eggnog. It's the perfect treat to follow up a delightful dinner courtesy Shawn McClain.

Michael Mina

[Celebrity Chef & Restaurateur]

Michael Mina's passion for cooking is evident in his long list of accolades, from the Rising Star Chef of the Year award he earned in 1997 to his inclusion in the James Beard Foundation's "Who's Who in Food & Beverage" in 2013 (with numerous Michelin stars along the way). The visionary chef founded his company, Mina Group, with partner Andre Agassi in 2002, and has opened 26 concepts since. He operates four restaurants in Las Vegas: Michael Mina at Bellagio, Stripsteak at Mandalay Bay, Pub 1842 at MGM Grand and his newest, the BARDOT Brasserie, which opened at Aria last month.

What are your first memories of cooking?

I come from a Middle Eastern family, where I can remember spending many hours around the table enjoying meals as a group. I think the overall memory of that through my childhood influenced my decision to become a chef.

Competition is so fierce in Las Vegas. How do you stay ahead of your competitors?

The restaurant scene in Vegas is continuously evolving, expanding and improving. The nature of the city forces us to always be on our toes to stay relevant, all while staying true to our philosophy of bold-yet-balanced flavors.

Valentine's Day and French cuisine go hand-in-hand. What are your menu selections for an unforgettable romantic meal?

The restaurant itself is incredibly sexy, so you're already off to a great start at BARDOT. I'd start with something luxurious like our foie gras parfait with port wine gelée or chilled shellfish. Then definitely one of our plats pour deux—sharing dinner always lends itself to a more intimate experience. The lobster thermador is a favorite, and don't leave without splitting a giant chocolate macaroon!

BARDOT's giant chocolate macaroon

What's one thing you can't be without in the kitchen?

A microplane, hands down. It's one of my go-to tools that I constantly find new uses for, with all types of ingredients. It's great for zesting fruit, grating cheese and even grating spices like nutmeg.

What was the best advice you ever received?

When you think you have things figured out, chances are someone is right behind you and has things figured out even more. You have to be relentless in your pursuit.

What do you like most about cooking?

I love the social aspect of food and how your cooking can bring people together. I love cooking anything as long as I'm with friends and family.

What are your favorite travel destinations?

I love visiting Hawaii, a close second is Japan. I'm happy anywhere on or near the water, with my family.

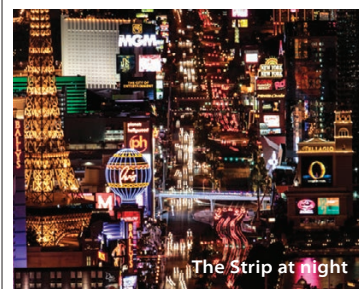

What's your favorite guilty indulgence?

Late-night snacks.

MICHAEL MINA'S LAS VEGAS

How he relaxes here

I'm in Las Vegas probably once a month. I love to end the night at The Petrossian Lounge at the Bellagio, it's a great place to unwind. I also really enjoy catching up with other chef friends in town, Vegas is a meeting place for a lot of us.

The Strip at night

Where he likes to eat

I recently had an amazing meal at Bazaar Meat (at SLS). José Andrés always knocks it out of the park. RAKU (off the Strip) is another favorite. I also love visiting Scott Conant at Scarpetta [at Cosmopolitan].

Scarpetta

How he characterizes Vegas' dining scene

Vegas is unlike any other place in the country. There is an unbelievable concentration of world-renowned chefs and an array of options that allows people to have a variety of dining experiences. There is something to fit everyone's needs.
